

Area 1 Year End Award Rules

In order to accumulate points for Area 1 year end awards, all riders, handlers and owners must be members of the Area 1 Promotional Club and reside within the boundaries of Area 1. For those people who have an AQHA lease, only the Leasee needs to be a member of Area 1.

Entries placing in a class will be awarded points in accordance with the total number of placings made by the judge up to nine on a sliding point system. See example below:

Basis for calculating points in all divisions: Points to be awarded to 9th place

5	5	4	3	2	1

In Grand and reserve halter classes, the Grand Champion will receive 2 points over the largest point class (excluding weanlings) and the Reserve Champion will receive 1 point over the largest point class.

Standings are calculated as follows:

Exhibitors need to accumulate points under a minimum of four judges at Area 1 approved shows to be eligible for Area 1 year end awards.

If you show at more than 70% of Area 1 approved shows, 70% of show results are to be counted for individual year end awards based on the number of times that a class is offered. This rule is meant to even the playing field for those exhibitors who may have to miss a weekend due to sickness, holidays, or distance.
